

MEET KEITH PORTNER.

Vice President Sales Manager/Business Development

Keith brings over 25 years of banking expertise to the Sioux Falls community, with a focus in real estate and construction financing as well as business development. He is committed to excellence in service, knowing financing can be stressful for clients. He works diligently to understand their goals and provide prompt follow-up, ensuring a positive customer experience.

As a graduate of Southwest Minnesota State University, Keith is right at home in the Plains. He is involved in several non-profit organizations and active in the local community with a family of six.

"Clients want timely, accurate, professional service at a great value. With the support of MetaBank's products, services, and expert staff, this benchmark has become a reality."
